

Villa Teratai

Villa Teratai is an exclusive villa owned by a New Zealand family resident in Indonesia. It is part of the Alam Sari Resort and Spa and is located high in the cool green hills surrounding the central Balinese town of Ubud, the cultural centre of the island. Located beside the traditional artists' village of Keliki, Villa Teratai looks out over rice terraces, coconut groves, with Mt Agung, Bali's holiest mountain, in the distance. It is approximately 90 minutes drive from the Bali International Airport.

Newly completed, Villa Teratai is designed with Balinese-style, modern architecture, and has open plan living and dining areas with cooling mountain breezes. It is tastefully furnished, has large, comfortable chairs and cushions in soft, understated tones which are at one with the natural setting and panoramic views which this villa affords.

All bedrooms are air conditioned, and have IDD telephone. The master bedroom is beautifully decorated with accents on rich, dark wood and décor in deep red and cream tones, with a large ensuite bathroom and indoor jacuzzi to complete it. The two guestrooms incorporate the theme of the featured Mahyar batiks in the colourful décor of deep greens, yellows and blues, and each room has an ensuite bathroom. There is a fully equipped kitchen/breakfast bar with all modern conveniences, and an air conditioned TV/video room with large, cosy chairs, and a guest library with a wide selection of DVDs for relaxation. Villa Teratai is surrounded by a lush, tropical garden, with an open Balinese pavilion, where guests can relax while taking in the magnificent scenery. Because of our location on the hillside, adequate supervision of young children is required.
